The Harvard Drug Group Again Recognized as One of 'Metro Detroit's 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For'

Commitment to Rewarding, Recognizing, Retaining and Recruiting Employees Lands The Harvard Drug Group on List for Second Consecutive Year

Livonia, MI (August 4, 2010) – The Harvard Drug Group, L.L.C., a leading national distributor of branded and generic pharmaceuticals, today announced that the organization has been recognized as one of "Metropolitan Detroit's 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For" by the Michigan Business and Professional Association (MBPA).

The MBPA honors companies that recognize their employees as their greatest asset. These are companies that work with imagination and conviction to create organizational value and business results through their policies and best practices in human resource management. The MBPA received thousands of nominations from companies vying to be named one of "Metropolitan Detroit's 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For" which they narrowed down to 500, of which 101 winners were selected.

The winning companies were selected based on their performance in the following categories: Communication, Community Initiatives, Compensation and Benefits, Diversity and Multiculturalism, Employee Education and Development, Employee Engagement and Commitment, Recognition and Retention, Recruitment and Selection, and Work- Life Balance.

"The selection, recognition and awarding of this year's 101 companies allows our organization to showcase their best practices. The honorees have clearly demonstrated why each of them would be an ideal place for employees to work. Companies that capitalize on their greatest resource--their employees--know how to attract and retain top talent," said Jennifer Kluge, President of MBPA.

"It is an incredible honor for the Company to be recognized for the second consecutive year for its best practices in Human Resources. These practices reward the hard work, dedication and commitment of our team members. In fact, it's these men and women that truly distinguish Harvard as one of the 101 Best & Brightest Companies to work for in Metro Detroit", stated Staci Dodson-Beurer, SPHR, Corporate Director of Human Resources of The Harvard Drug Group.
